Iqaluit Fire Department Training at Qajuqturvik Community Food Centre

November 24, 2026 – Iqaluit, Nunavut

The City of Iqaluit would like to advise residents that the Iqaluit Fire Department will be conducting a training exercise at the Qajuqturvik Community Food Centre tonight from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM.

Residents may notice the presence of fire department personnel and emergency vehicles in the area during this time. Please be advised that this is a scheduled training exercise and not an emergency at the facility.

Regular training exercises help ensure that our firefighters are prepared to respond effectively to emergencies and keep our community safe.

The City of Iqaluit and the Iqaluit Fire Department extend their appreciation to the Qajuqturvik Community Food Centre for generously providing access to their facility. Partnerships such as this play an important role in strengthening emergency preparedness and building a safer, more resilient community.
