Elders Qammaq Program Reopening

May 11, 2022 – Iqaluit, Nunavut

Iqaluit Recreation is happy to announce the re-opening of the Elders Qammaq. Regularly scheduled programming for elders will begin starting Wednesday, May 11, 2022.

Though the COVID-19 Pandemic meant that the Qammaq had to close, the Recreation Department took the opportunity to upgrade the facility with some much-needed renovations and repairs. Guests will now be greeted with a beautiful new deck, interior and exterior paint, updated energy efficient LED lighting, the installation of brand new washer and dryer, and a new outdoor grill smoker.

The Recreation Department would like to acknowledge the Department of Culture and Heritage for their support in facility upgrades, as well as The Tukisigiavik Society for their support in the continued distribution of food to Elder's households during the closure.
