Mask Mandate Lifted

July 13, 2022 - Iqaluit, Nunavut

The City of Iqaluit would like to advise residents that in line with the other provinces' practice and the latest recommendation from the Nunavut CPHO on July 4th, 2022, a recommendation was put forward to Council to repeal By-Law 937: Temporary Face Covering. On July 12, 2022, the City Council voted unanimously in favour of the aforementioned recommendation.

Effective immediately, mask wearing is no longer required within City facilities.
