

City of Iqaluit
1085 Mivvik Street
P.O. Box 460
Iqaluit, Nunavut
X0A 0H0

Public Service Announcement

Fire Training

June 20, 2023 – Iqaluit, Nunavut

The Iqaluit Fire Department spent some time last week sharpening their skills at their new training ground. If you noticed smoke coming from the West 40 last week, that is the fire department's new training home.

With the instruction of Battalion Chief Jake Barnes from New Albany, Indiana, Iqaluit Firefighters spent the week getting better prepared to protect Iqaluit. The City thanks them for their hard work.

##

For additional information, please contact:

Kent Driscoll Communications and Customer Service Manager
867-979-5607 k.driscoll@iqaluit.ca

Photo FD1: (Mac Pavia/City of Iqaluit photo) Iqaluit Firefighters Acting Lt Emily Galipo (left) and Firefighter Amelia Martin (right) have a lighter moment with their Instructor, Battalion Chief Jake Barnes of Albany, Indiana.

Photo FD2: (Mac Pavia/City of Iqaluit photo) Iqaluit Firefighter Nate Link –in full firefighting gear or “bunker gear” as they call it- prepares to put out a practice blaze as a part of the Iqaluit Fire Department’s regular training.

Photo FD3: (Mac Pavia/City of Iqaluit photo) Things are heating up for Iqaluit Firefighter Firefighter Cody Boulley, as they prepare to take on an active fire in practice conditions, as a part of the Iqaluit Fire Department's ongoing training.