Iqaluit Resident Chosen for PM Youth Council

September 28, 2016 (Iqaluit, Nunavut) – The City of Iqaluit is pleased to announce that Iqaluit resident Nmesoma Umenwofo-Nweze has been chosen as a member of Prime Minister Justin Trudeau's Youth Council.

"I've always been impressed by Nmesoma, by her energy and passion for learning and her generosity in helping others," said Iqaluit Mayor Madeleine Redfern. "She is an excellent role model and I'm confident that she will make important and valuable contributions to the Prime Minister's Youth Council."

The Youth Council was created to advise the Prime Minister on national issues such as employment, access to education, building stronger communities, climate change and clean growth.
