Intermittent Disruption of Water Service for Plateau

September 28, 2016 (Iqaluit, Nunavut) The City of Iqaluit would like to advise residents living in the Plateau area that there may be intermittent water service disruption Thursday and Friday, between 9 AM and 4:30 PM, due to infrastructure repairs.

Water service will return to normal by 4:30 PM on Friday.

The City appreciates your patience during this period.
