VOLUNTEERING AT THE MAKKUTTUKKUVIK YOUTH CENTRE

Thank you for your interest in volunteering at the Makkuttuukkuvik Youth Centre. Volunteers are an essential asset for the activities that we provide.

The City of Iqaluit volunteer program is aimed at providing opportunities to develop skills such as leadership, initiative and responsibility and to give back to the community. Although the program does not provide direct volunteer training, you will be given an orientation by a supervising staff person before you begin your volunteer placement so that you know your responsibilities and our expectations.

Volunteering is a great way to be active, gain new skills and experiences, meet people and provide a service that may not otherwise be offered. Best of all, you will be taking action to promote what you think is important and making an overall difference.

So if you are interested, please complete the application, as well as the application questions, and return it along with your clear Criminal Reference Check and proof of TB testing to the Youth Coordinator. If you have any further questions regarding volunteer opportunities, please contact Sarah Ahluwalia, Youth Coordinator, by phone 975-5620 or by e-mail at s.ahluwalia@city.iqaluit.nu.ca
